23/02/2016	Shri Sumit Jhawar, Advocate for the applicant. Smt. M. Asha, PL for the State/ respondent. The instant Criminal Revision has been preferred within its limitation. Smt. M. Asha accepts notice on behalf of the respondent. The revision is admitted for consideration. Records of the Courts below be called for through usual and fax mode. Also heard on IA No.01/2016, application for suspension of sentence and grant of bail to the applicant. The applicant has been convicted vide judgment dated 15.12.2014 by the Judicial Magistrate First Class, Jashpur, District Jashpur (CG) in Cr. Case No.30/2014 under sections 467, 468, 471 & 420 IPC and sentenced to undergo R.I. for 2 years in each count with fine of Rs.200/- in each count; in default of payment of fine to further undergo S.I. for 15 days under each count. All the sentences were directed to run concurrently. The applicant has been granted set off under Section 428 Cr.P.C. The applicant challenged the said judgment of conviction and sentence before the appellate Court. The Additional Sessions Judge, Jashpurnagar, Disitriect Jashpur (CG) in Cr. Appeal No.2/2015 vide judgment dated 17.2.2016 dismissed the appeal and affirmed the judgment passed by the trial Court. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant was in jail during trial and he is in jail since 17.2.2016 till date. He submits that there is no criminal antecedent against the applicant. The applicant has deposited the fine amount and he has a good case to argue, therefore, he be given opportunity to remain on bail during the pendency of this Cr. Revision. On the other hand, learned counsel for the respondent opposed the bail application. For the purposes of appreciation regarding prayer made in this behalf perused the judgments of the Courts below. On due consideration of the fact that the substantive jail sentences were directed to run concurrently and fine amount has already been deposited, I am of the opinion that present is a fit case to suspend the substantive jail sentences imposed upon the applicant. Consequently, IA No.01/2016 is allowed. It is directed that execution of substantive jail sentences imposed upon the applicant shall remain suspended during the pendency of this revision and he shall be released on bail on his furnishing a personal bond of Rs.25,000/- with one solvent surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate First Class Jashpur, District Jashpur (CG) for his appearance before the said trial Court on 7th April, 2016 and thereafter he shall continue to appear before the said trial Court on all such other subsequent dates as are given to him by the said Court, till the disposal of this revision. The trial Court is directed that in case the applicant fails to furnish bail bonds before 7th April,2016, then the trial Court is not required to release him unless he gets the date extended which
