HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH, BILASPUR

Order Sheet

Cr.A. No. 257 of 2019Balvir Singh @ Bittu Versus State of Chhattisgarh

24.02.2023	Mr. Saket Pandey, Advocate appears on behalf of Mr. Basant Dewangan, Advocate for the appellant. Mr. Sanjay Pathak, PL for the State / respondent. Vide memo dated 30.01.2023, Upper Sessions Judge (FTC) Durg has informed that as per information given by brother-in-law (जीजा) of appellant, sole appellant has died on 31.05.2022. It has further been mentioned in the memo that original death certificate was also filed by brother-in-law of the appellant, which was returned after retaining attested copy thereof. Alleged death certificate of appellant – Balvir Singh @ Bittu has also been enclosed along with the memo. But perusal of death certificate shows that date of death mentioned in the certificate is found to be fainted, however, it seems that date of death of appellant is mentioned as 20.04.2022. Thus, date of death is found to be different in memo and death certificate. Learned counsel for the appellant would submit that he has not received any information in respect of alleged death of appellant. In view of above, learned counsel for the appellant seeks time to apprise the Court about aforesaid fact. Time, as prayed for, is granted. However, learned counsel for the State is also directed to verify the issue and file appropriate document in respect of aforesaid fact. List this case in the week after next. Sd/- (N.K. Chandravanshi) Judge
