Order on Board

28/02/2026	None for the petitioner in two rounds. The matter is listed on various defaults. It transpires from the order-sheets that on 30.04.2025, the matter was listed on default and time was granted to learned counsel for the petitioner to remove the default.

Thereafter, on 28.11.2025 and 10.12.2025, the matter was repeatedly listed on default and time was granted to learned counsel for the petitioner to remove the default but the same has not been removed.

Today also the matter has been listed on default.

On repeated calls, no one appears on behalf of the petitioner to pursue the present petition.

It transpires from the impugned judgment dated 28.01.2024 that the respondent/ accused has been acquitted by the learned trial Court from the offence under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act and the present is an application for grant of relief to file acquittal appeal.

Since, no one appears on behalf of the petitioner and no representation has been made and even the default has not been removed despite repeated time was granted to the learned counsel for the petitioner, the present Cr.MP is dismissed for want of prosecution.
