09/03/2016	Ms. Shailaja Shukla, counsel for the Appellants. Shri Raj Kumar Gupta, Deputy Advocate General for the State. Notice was issued on 1.2.2016 to the Respondents by registered and ordinary process. The Office note states that report with regard to service of notice is awaited. Pursuant to order dated 1.7.2015 passed in F.A(M) No.71/2015, general directions were issued by the Registry that in all cases where notices are issued by registered post, the Office is required to keep track of the same from the postal website and put up the report in the file. On 8.7.2015, a circular bearing No.5043/R.G./F.A.(M)/71/2015 was issued which reads as follows:- “It is hereby directed that henceforth in all cases, where registered notices are issued, it is required to track delivery on the postal website and submit report on file irrespective of the fact whether there is individual order in a case to do so or not. All the Deputy Registrars of the section concerned are directed to ensure strict compliance of the above circular.” Call for an explanation from the Office why the judicial order as also the circular in pursuance thereof have been ignored and proper Office notes have not been put up.

List on 15.3.2016 under the heading "Orders".
