1. The applicant has preferred this First Bail Application under Section 483 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 for grant of regular bail, as he has been arrested in connection with Crime No. 109/2026, registered at Police Station – Saraipali, District – Mahasamund (C.G.) for the offence punishable under Section 34(2) of C.G. 2. The case of the prosecution, is that the Police of Police Station – Saraipali, District – Mahasamund (C.G.) has received a secret information through the informant and on the basis of such information the Police has seized a total of 21.8 liters of liquor from the possession of the applicant. Thereafter, the applicant has been arrested by the Police and the offence was registered.

3. It is argued by the learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case and there is only one criminal antecedent registered against the present applicant. It is further submitted that the charge-sheet has been filed in this case. He further submits that under Section 34(2) of the Excise Act, minimum punishment is one year and maximum punishment is three years. The applicant is in jail since 02.04.2026 and trial is likely to take some time for its conclusion, therefore, he prays for grant of bail.
4. On the other hand, the learned State counsel opposes the bail application and submits that there is one criminal antecedent registered against the present applicant, and the charge-sheet has been filed in this case. It is further submitted that a total of 21.8 liters of liquor has been seized from the possession of the present applicant, therefore, he is not entitled for grant of bail.
5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused all of the documents available on record.
6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, nature and gravity of allegation levelled against the applicant and the fact that there is only one criminal antecedent registered against the present applicant, charge-sheet has been filed against the applicant and he is in jail since 02.04.2026 and conclusion of the trial is likely to take some time, I am inclined to allow this application.
