

HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH, BILASPUR

Order Sheet

FA (MAT) No.164 of 2023

Raju Vijay Tandan Versus Smt. Madhulata Tandan

14/02/2024	Ms. Nidhi Giri, Advocate for the Appellant. Shri Aditya Khare, Advocate for the Respondent. Both the parties are also present before the Court in person. Heard. After having brief interaction with the parties, it came to our notice that two children are born out of the marriage and the wife submits that she is ready and willing to stay along with husband condoning the earlier incidents on both parts. The husband would submit that the wife is not in know where the children are studying and what are their conditions. In counter the wife submits that she is not being allowed to meet the children. Since the husband has suffered a dismissal of divorce petition which is under challenge in appeal before us, in order to resolve the issue we deem it appropriate that since the children are born out of the marriage, the visitation right may be allowed to the wife so that the chances of amicable settlement in either way comes to fore. This may dilute the strange relation between them. Accordingly, the wife would be allowed to meet the children on each Sunday of the month from 10.00 AM to 5.00 PM and can be in company. The husband may also join. We know that the jurisdiction what we are exercising, however, in order to settle the matrimonial dispute the children cannot be allowed to stay at brinks. Consequently, the entire purpose is exercised to develop a relationship of mother and children in order to revive eventual relationship amongst the parents.

The parties shall also appear before the mediation center on 21st of March, 2024.

List the case thereafter.
