

HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH AT BILASPUR*MAC No. 1015 of 2018*ICICI LOMBARD GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY LIMITED*versus*MEENA TARAM*Order on Board

13/06/2025	Ms. Harneet Kaur, Advocate for the Appellant. Mr. S. P. Sahu, Advocate for the respective respondent. No one appeared on behalf of claimants / respondents No. 1 to 4 though office report shows that notice have been served upon them. Learned counsel for the insurance company/appellant submits that the element of dependency has not been appropriately calculated, notwithstanding the observation of learned Tribunal that dependency is to be deducted to the extent of one-fourth ($\frac{1}{4}$) share. It is contended that upon deduction of such dependency, the compensation amount would be reduced to approximately Rs. 3,00,000/-. Therefore, in view of the applicable legal principles, the claimant is likely to be adversely affected by

Shayna	the impugned order. In the interest of justice, learned counsel for the appellant is hereby directed to cause fresh notices to be issued to respondents No. 1 to 4, both by ordinary post and registered post, upon payment of the requisite process fee, within a period of one week. List this matter after service of notice. Sd/- (Amitendra Kishore Prasad) Judge
