

HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH AT BILASPUR*SA No. 215 of 2016*Premnath Arora versus Surajmal Mandore*Order on Board

13/03/2026	Ms, Isha Jajodia, Counsel for the Appellant. Ms. Shivangi Agrawal, Counsel for the Respondent. Perusal of the office note shows that the case has been listed for default of payment of process fee. Further perusal of the earlier order sheets shows that vide order dated 06.10.2025, the appellant was directed to pay the process fee within a period of three weeks. However, till date the process fee has not been paid and no application seeking condonation of delay in payment of process fee has been filed. It is also reflected from the record that an interim relief order is operating in favour of the appellant.

Jyoti	Today, learned counsel for the appellant prays for one week's time to cure the defect as pointed out by the Registry. Considering the prayer made by learned counsel for the appellant, one week's time is granted to cure the defect, subject to payment of cost of Rs. 5,000/-, payable to the High Court Legal Aid Committee within a week.
