

2026:CGHC:24635

HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH, BILASPUR*Order Sheet*WPC No. 4858 of 2023*M/s. Vinod Kumar Jain Versus State of Chhattisgarh & Ors.

|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 10.11.2023 | Mr. Apurv Goyal, learned counsel for the petitioner. Ms. Sameeksha Gupta, Panel Lawyer for the Respondent No. 1/State. Mr. Anumesh Shrivastava, learned counsel for the Respondents No. 2 to 4. On the objection being raised by the learned Counsel for the Respondent that the issue involved is with regard to G.S.T and therefore, the classification/nomenclature of the writ petition would be WPT and not WPC. Counsel for the petitioner submits that he may be granted short time to take necessary steps in this regard. If the correction is made, the case may be listed as a fresh case. Sd/-(Parth Prateem Sahu)Judge |
| Dey        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |

|  |  |
|--|--|
|  |  |
|--|--|