

HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH AT BILASPUR

WPS No. 9195 of 2023

NATTHULAL VASTRAKAR versus STATE OF CHHATTISGARH

Order Sheet

29/10/2025	Mr. Dheerendra Pandey, Advocate for the petitioner. Mr. Dashrath Prajapati, Panel Lawyer for the State. Earlier, on 24.09.2025, learned counsel for the State had prayed for and was granted three weeks' time to file the return, and a further one week's time was granted to the petitioner to file a rejoinder. Today again, learned counsel for the State seeks a further period of two weeks to file the return. As a matter of last indulgence, two weeks' time is granted to the learned State counsel to file the return. It is made clear that if the return is not filed within the time granted, the matter shall be heard on the basis of the pleadings available on record. The petitioner shall be at liberty to file a rejoinder, if so advised. List the matter after two weeks. Sd/- (Amitendra Kishore Prasad) Judge
Yogesh	