

HIGH COURT OF CHHATTISGARH AT BILASPUR*WPS No. 11981 of 2025*DHANESHWAR SIDAR versus STATE OF CHHATTISGARHOrder Sheet

15/10/2025	Mr. Govind Prasad Dewangan, counsel for the petitioner. Mr. Sabyasachi Choubey, Panel Lawyer for the State. During the course of arguments, issue cropped up before this Court is that the issue with regard to surplus teachers are continuing for such a long period and probably all the Government School or, at least primary schools are running with one Teacher and if the teachers are surplus whether they can be posted in Primary Schools where at least 1+1 teacher is required. The State is directed to clarify by way of an affidavit how many schools are now there without teachers after initiation of the rationalization policy. The State shall also clarify that in the Middle Schools run by the State whether the institutions are having 1 + 3 teachers as per set up.. The State shall also clarify that how many number of excess teachers are available for them to post in Primary Schools or Middle Schools, so that the basic requirement under RTE Act can be fulfilled. The State shall also clarify which Primary Schools are not having number of Head Masters where Head Masters have not been posted and what steps they have carried out to post the
