1. These are applications filed by the petitioner seeking restoration of the petitions which were dismissed in default and for non-prosecution on 03.11.2022.

2. Despite opportunity, no reply thereto has been filed by the respondent no. 2 who was in any event, not represented on the said date when the petitions came to be dismissed in default and for non-prosecution.
3. Even though the petitioner appears to have still not complied with the earlier orders passed by this Court, taking into account the reasons stated in the applications, the same are allowed and the writ petitions are restored to their original positions. The petitioner is however, granted last opportunity of six weeks to comply with the earlier orders, failing which the Court will be compelled to once again dismiss the petitions for non-prosecution.
