HEARD THROUGH VIDEO CONFERENCING

CM APPL. 26564/2020 (By the appellant for stay)

1. This is the second application moved by the appellant for stay. Earlier hereto, the appellant had filed CM APPL. 549/2019, on which, an interim order came to be passed in favour of the appellant on 13.02.2019, clarified on 06.09.2020. In view of the fact that the said application is still pending we see no reason to entertain another application for stay.

2. Mr. Tanmay Mehta, learned counsel for the appellant, seeks to explain that the present application has been moved to bring on record subsequent events. Even if that is so, it would not need 16 pages to bring on record the said events.

3. Mr. Mehta states that he may be permitted to withdraw the present application while reserving the right of the appellant to file a fresh application to bring on record the subsequent events and to press the pending application for stay.

4. Leave, as prayed for, is granted. The application is disposed of as not pressed.

5. We may also note here that for reasons best known to learned counsel for the respondent no.1, he has filed a “Short reply” to the main appeal when there is no such procedure prescribed. The said “Short reply” is directed to be taken off the record. Respondent no.1 shall be entitled to refer to and reply upon the record at the time of arguments.
