Matter is taken up through physical hearing as well as video conferencing.

Learned counsel for defendants has stated that the copy of document supplied to him alongwith replication was not legible due to which he could not file affidavit of admission/denial qua the said document of the plaintiff. At request, clear legible copy of the document/Registration Certificate be supplied to learned counsel for defendants by learned counsel for the plaintiff by way of e-mail within two days. Last opportunity is granted to defendants for filing affidavit of admission/denial qua the said document within two weeks.

Plaintiff is directed to file Joint Documents Schedule within four weeks qua all the documents of the plaintiff as well as defendants.

Learned counsel for the Plaintiff has stated that defendant nos. 2 and 3 were added later in the case. However, Amended Memo of Parties has not been filed on record. Plaintiff is directed to file Amended Memo of Parties reflecting the complete name and address of all defendants, within two weeks.

Hard copies of documents, if any, e-filed by both the parties during COVID-19 Pandemic period, may be filed with the Registry physically before the next date of hearing.

Put up for admission/denial and marking of exhibits on 12th May, 2023, as last opportunity to both the parties.
