I.A. 13618/2025-For dir. to defendant to file legible copies of documents

1. By virtue of the present application, the plaintiff seeks direction to the defendant for filing the legible copies of the documents, which are illegible in the joint convenience compilation filed by the learned counsel for the parties.

2. At the outset, learned counsel for the defendant submits that all documents which have been filed in the joint convenience compilation are in fact forming a part of record and since the pdf pagination of all such documents have been duly obtained, there is no requirement of filing any legible copies of the documents as she will be referring to the same, if required, from the Court file as also be ready with a legible copy of the said documents.

3. In view of the aforesaid, let the joint convenient compilation be brought on record.

4. The application stands disposed of.

CS(COMM) 39/2023

5. Learned counsel for the parties seek and are granted four weeks for filing a fresh written synopsis not exceeding twelve pages, in compliance of the last order dated 29.04.2025.

6. Renotify on 08.08.2025 i.e. the date already fixed.
