ORDER

11.11.2025

1. We have considered respective suggestions made by counsel appearing for parties to the petitions.
2. We direct the Court Masters of this Court, to divide all these matters in a group of 10 each, basis serial number as listed in today's cause list.
3. Let each group be directed to be listed before the Registrar of this Court with effect, starting from 1st December, 2025 and on subsequent dates, for completion of pleadings.
4. Counsels appearing for respective respondents shall make every endeavour to complete their pleadings, if not already completed, and submit their response before the Registrar on the date of their appearance or such other date as the Registrar deems it appropriate to grant; however, the accommodation to be granted by the Registrar to respondents for completion of their pleadings shall, in any case, be not more than four weeks from their date of appearance.

5. We further make it clear that petitioners shall be at liberty to file their rejoinder(s) in each of the matters within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of the counter filed by the respondents.

6. We direct the Registrar to ensure that copy of the affidavit filed by the respondents is made available to petitioners, to facilitate them to file their rejoinder, if so desired by them.

7. We make it clear that opportunities granted to respondents to complete their pleadings, as directed hereinabove, by orders of the Registrar, shall be as a last opportunity.

8. Since all these matters are listed after the remand order passed by the Hon'ble Apex Court, the Registrar shall also ensure to issue Court notices to petitioners and to the respective counsels, who at relevant time appeared for petitioners, so that the service in the matter is complete.

9. In case, if respondents are not represented in the matter, we deem it appropriate to direct a notice to that effect, to be given Ms. Manika Tripathi and Ms. Shobhana Takiar, Advocates for respondent/DDA, Mr. Sameer Vashisth, Advocate for respondent/ Government for NCT of Delhi (GNCTD) and Mr. Sanjay Pathak, Advocate for respondent/LAC.

10. We further direct the Registrar to categorize the matters in which, the pleadings of all the parties viz. the counter filed by respondents and rejoinder filed by petitioners is complete, so that such matters can be marked as 'matured for hearing'.

11. As far as other matters wherein the Registrar feels that certain compliances are required, he may mark a note to that effect, and the grouping of said matters be done independently of the aforesaid lot, which can be termed as 'matured for hearing'.

12. The words used vis. 'counter' and 'rejoinder' be not restricted to that of filing additional affidavits, if so desired by the parties.

13. Petitioners are at liberty to file amendment application, if so desired, which may be completed in any case within a period of two weeks from today.

14. Counsel appearing for respondent/Land Acquisition Collector ('LAC') shall submit a "Master List" of all matters, as per the categorization ordered by the Hon'ble Apex Court. Let this "Master List" be submitted before the Registrar, and a copy of which be placed with each of the matters.

15. Parties are directed to appear before the Registrar for completion of pleadings as per the schedule below:
