1. Adjournment slips have been circulated in these matters on behalf of the Management of Airports Authority of India. It is stated that the arguing Counsel has met with an accident. The request for adjournment is fairly not opposed by the Respondent. However, it is pointed out that repeated adjournments are being taken by the Management of Airports Authority of India including on the last date of hearing.

2. Given that the matters are pending for the last six years, it is directed that matter shall be listed for hearing on 13.10.2025.
