CRL.M.A. 9402/2026 (for early hearing)

1. This is an application for early hearing of the writ petition.
2. For the reasons stated and with consent of the learned counsel for the parties, the application is allowed and the writ petition is taken up for hearing.
3. The application accordingly stands disposed of.

W.P.(CRL.) 250/2026

4. The present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution has been filed by the petitioner seeking a direction to the respondent to release him on parole for a period of four weeks in connection with FIR No. 231/2009 dated 08.09.2009, registered at Police Station Neb Sarai under Sections 302/201 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860, to enable him to re-establish social ties with his family and society, and to continue construction on his allotted share in the ancestral property.

5. Ms. Rupali Bandhopadhya, learned Additional Standing Counsel for the State, submits that, by an order passed today, the petitioner has been granted the first spell of furlough for a period of three weeks from the date of his release. The same is taken on record.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner, therefore, does not press this petition without prejudice to the rights and remedies of the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the petition stands disposed of.
