As per record, joint schedule was to be filed. However nothing fresh has been filed. It is stated by plaintiff that draft of joint schedule was shared with the opposite side in January, 2020. However learned counsel for defendant did not get back to the plaintiff in respect of the joint schedule. In the interest of justice, no adverse order is being passed today especially in view of the emergent situation caused by Covid-19 pandemic. Accordingly, the matter stands adjourned. Joint schedule be filed within six weeks.
