Learned counsel appearing for the parties submit that they have settled their disputes vide Memorandum of Understanding/Deed of Settlement dated 28.08.2025 ('MoU').

Clause 6 of the MoU grants to the husband the right to meet his child and take-away custody from the wife. Clause 7 thereof writes-off the rights of the minor children in the ancestral and self-acquired property of the father.

Upon being queried, respondent No.2/(wife) states that petitioner No.1 does not want to have custody of the child; and that she did not intend to write-off the rights of the child in the ancestral and self-acquired property of petitioner No.1.

The settlement has obviously been signed without application of mind.

In view thereof, the parties are directed to draw-up an appropriate settlement, taking into account what has been observed above.

Let the modified settlement be placed on record before the next date.

Re-notify on 02nd March 2026.

Let the parties remain present in court on the next date of hearing.
