1. It is pointed out that the learned Trial Court has already heard the arguments in the protest petition filed by the petitioner, however, the final orders are yet to be passed.
2. Learned counsel for the respondents submit that protest petition has been pending from last more than one year and directions may be issued to expedite passing of the final orders.
3. The learned Additional Standing Counsel for the State submits that the learned Trial Court has fixed the matter for 21.11.2025 for passing a final order and no specific directions are required to be passed at this stage.
4. Considering that the learned Trial Court has reserved the matter for passing order in the month of July, 2025, it is expected that appropriate orders would be passed on the next date of hearing, unless some clarifications are required.

5. Learned counsel for the parties assure that they will remain present in the Court on the next date of hearing and the parties would also be made to appear through video conferencing so that clarification, if any, can be addressed at that stage itself.

6. List on 03.12.2025.
