16. The application is disposed of, with the aforesaid directions.

I.A. No. 3881/2025 (Application seeking directions to the Intelligence Fusion and Strategic Operations/Cyber Cell, Special Cell, Delhi Police)

17. The present application has been filed under Section 151 CPC seeking directions to the Intelligence Fusion & Strategic Operations/Cyber Cell, Special Cell, Delhi Police.

18. The instant suit has been filed for permanent injunction restraining the illegal and unauthorized adoption and use of the plaintiff's trademarks, i.e.,

‘RELIANCE’, ‘Aapki Khushi Hamari Khushi’, ‘YOUSTA’, ‘yousta’, by defendant nos.

1 and 18, for the purpose of deceiving and/or duping members of the public and trade/by representing themselves to be associated/ affiliated with the plaintiff as an agent, dealer, distributor, etc.

19. It is the case of the plaintiff that the rogue defendants, defendant nos. 1 and 18 together with other unknown perpetrators are indulged in illegal and fraudulent activities and the defendant no.1 along with other unknown defendants i.e., Ashok Kumar(s) / defendant no. 18 herein are misusing the plaintiff's registered marks and operating online through websites and social media platforms ("Fraudulent Pages") in order to deceive unsuspecting members of the public by dishonestly portraying themselves to be agents of the plaintiff and misrepresenting themselves to be affiliated with the plaintiff's brand 'YOUSTA'.

20. It is further submitted that the rogue defendants have perpetrated a calculated fraud on the members of the public by luring such members into applying to become franchisees of the plaintiff, whereas, no such franchises are actually extended by the plaintiff through the rogue defendants, and in the entire process, the rogue defendants infringe upon the plaintiff's registered trademarks "YOUSTA" and "yousta". Thus, it is submitted that the rogue defendants are operating fake enterprises through the fraudulent pages, in order to falsely induce and gain trust of such unsuspecting customers, by way of using the information of the plaintiff, i.e., the brand

'YOUSTA' and registered trademarks "YOUSTA" and "yousta".

21. It is submitted that the rogue defendants have been seeking personal information from innocent consumers, including, but not limited to, mobile numbers, email addresses, current business and minimum amount of investment that the consumers intend to invest, and once such information is furnished by the unsuspecting member of the public, the rogue defendants contact them to extort monies through misrepresentations and dishonest inducements.

22. It is submitted that from the evidence collected and based on the information displayed on the fraudulent pages of the rogue defendants, i.e. plaintiff's registered mark, 'YOUSTA' and the actual email and corporate address of the plaintiff, it can be reasonably culled out that the modus operandi of the rogue defendants is to, inter alia, deceive the innocent members of the public into believing that the rogue defendants are representatives of the plaintiff.

23. It is submitted that the plaintiff has an apprehension that the details of the mobile numbers used by the rogue defendants, as available with the defendant nos. 14 and 15, may be incorrect. Further, the correct identity of the rogue defendants can be ascertained by investigating the IP addresses, mobile numbers, websites, domain names, etc., being used by the perpetrators to dupe the general members of the public.

24. Thus, it is imperative that this Court directs the Intelligence Fusion and Strategic Operations/Cyber Cell, Special Cell, Delhi Police to investigate, and obtain relevant information about the rogue defendants and place the same, before this Court.

25. Attention of this Court has been drawn to the order dated 23rd December, 2024, in CS (COMM) 475/2022, passed by this Court, where, in similar circumstances, directions were issued by this Court for investigation and filing Status Report.

26. Considering the submission made before this Court, the Intelligence

Fusion and Strategic Operations/Special Cell, New Delhi, Delhi Police (Cyber Cell), is directed to investigate and identify the exact details of defendant nos. 1 and 18, operating through mobile numbers, websites, social media platforms and the websites, details of which are given in Documents A to G attached to the present order.

27. Let a thorough investigation be carried out and a Status Report be filed by the Delhi Police (Cyber Cell), in this regard.

28. The plaintiff is at liberty to give any other documents or information to the Cyber Cell of the Delhi Police, as and when any new documents or information comes to the notice of the plaintiff.

29. The present order is directed to be delivered to the Standing Counsel, Delhi Police, Criminal, for compliance and necessary action.

30. With the aforesaid directions, the present application is disposed of.

CS(COMM) 125/2025

31. Let the plaint be registered as suit.

32. Issue summons. Summons is accepted by learned counsel for defendant nos. 4, 16 and 17.

33. This court notes the statement of learned counsel for defendant no. 4 that no written statement is required to be filed on behalf of defendant nos. 4, 16 and 17, as there are no reliefs against them, except compliance to be done in terms of directions issued by this Court.

34. Issue summons to other defendants, upon filing of Process Fees, by all permissible modes. Summons shall state that the written statement be filed by the defendants within thirty days from the date of receipt of summons. Along with the written statement, the defendants shall also file affidavit of admission/denial of the plaintiff's documents, without which, the written statement shall not be taken on record.

35. Liberty is given to the plaintiff to file replication within thirty days from the date of receipt of the written statement. Further, along with the replication, if any, filed by the plaintiff, an affidavit of admission/denial of documents of the defendants, be filed by the plaintiff, without which, the replication shall not be taken on record. If any of the parties wish to seek inspection of the documents, the same shall be sought and given within the timelines.

36. List before the Joint Registrar (Judicial) for marking of exhibits, on 16th April, 2025.

37. List before the Court on 19th May, 2025.

I.A. 3880/2025 (Application under Order XXXIX Rules 1 and 2 CPC)

38. The present suit has been filed for permanent injunction restraining infringement of trademark rights, passing off, unfair trade practices, dilution, delivery up, etc.

39. It is submitted that the plaintiff has filed the present suit against the illegal and unauthorised adoption and illegal use of the plaintiff's registered trademarks "RELIANCE", "", "YOUSTA", "" by the defendant nos. 1 and 18 for the purpose of deceiving the members of the public by representing themselves to be associated / affiliated with the plaintiff as agencies to offer franchise opportunities of the plaintiff's brand 'YOUSTA'.

40. It is submitted that the plaintiff is engaged in the retail sales of, inter alia, groceries, bakery and dairy products, home and personal care products, general merchandise items, beauty and cosmetic products, fashion and lifestyle products, consumer electronics and home appliances for the past two and a half decades. In order to perpetuate its business, the plaintiff, inter alia, owns, operates and manages a nationwide network of retail outlets, convenience stores, supermarkets, specialty and online stores under various brands / trademarks.

41. It is submitted that the plaintiff launched its indigenous and dynamic youth-centric fashion brand 'YOUSTA' in August 2023. The plaintiff sought to carve its niche with the brand "YOUSTA" that would resonate with the youth, offering them the latest trends of clothing at affordable prices. The plaintiff's brand 'YOUSTA' offers a diverse portfolio of consumer products including, but not limited to, apparel, footwear and accessories. The plaintiff is also expanding its product portfolio to include cosmetics and accessories in the future.

42. It is submitted that the plaintiff applied for the registration of the trademarks "YOUSTA" and "" under various classes, including Classes 3, 14, 18, 21, 24, 25 and 35, during the months of March and April 2023. The trademarks "YOUSTA" and "" under the aforementioned classes stand registered in the name of the plaintiff.

43. It is submitted that the brand 'YOUSTA', enjoys substantial goodwill and reputation in the market. Introduced in August 2023 as a youth-centric brand, 'YOUSTA' quickly gained recognition for providing high quality, affordable products, tailored specifically for Indian consumers' needs. Apart from housing unisex merchandise, character merchandise and a weekly refresh capsule, 'YOUSTA' drops brand new looks in its 'Starring Now' collection every week, where the latest fashion is offered as a complete outfit with matching accessories. The extensive promotional campaigns across various media, including print, radio, and television, along with on-ground activations, have further solidified the brand's market presence.

Thus, the use of the marks “YOUSTA” and “” has become intrinsically associated with Reliance's promise of quality and indigenous excellence, making any unauthorized use or infringement detrimental to its established reputation and goodwill.

44. It is submitted that the goodwill and reputation of the mark ‘YOUSTA’ is further demonstrated by its impressive inaugural sales of approximately INR 114,33,00,000/- in its debut year i.e., August 2023 to August 2024. It is submitted that the trademarks “YOUSTA” and

“” are inherently distinctive. Thus, the plaintiff has established valuable common law rights in the trademarks “YOUSTA” and “” concerning its apparel, footwear, cosmetics and accessories and the said trademarks have become synonymous with the plaintiff.

45. It is submitted that the defendant no. 1, in collusion with other unknown perpetrators, is engaged in illegal and fraudulent activities by misusing the plaintiff's well-known trademarks and trade name – ‘YOUSTA’ and ‘Reliance Retail Limited’. Defendant no. 1 is operating its fraudulent business through the creation of deceptive websites, fake offer letters, fabricated agreements, social media accounts/posts, YouTube videos, and WhatsApp accounts, all unlawfully bearing the plaintiff's trademarks, trade name, company details, and employee information. While the plaintiff is yet to ascertain the exact identities of these rogue defendants, it has reason to believe that all websites, social media accounts identified in the suit are operated under defendant no. 1, are interconnected and follow a common modus operandi to defraud the general public.

46. It is submitted that on 11th December, 2024, the plaintiff was informed by a victim, Mr. Ratheesh R from Cochin, Kerala, that an individual named Mr. Varun Singh Rathore had impersonated an employee of the plaintiff, falsely claiming to be the Director, Sales & Marketing. By doing so, the perpetrator dishonestly induced the victim to part with INR 2,65,000/-.

47. It is submitted that the perpetrator(s)/rogue defendants, operating under the plaintiff's infringing domain name - info@youstaco.com, induced the victim to transfer the funds. A fraudulent payment receipt was subsequently issued in confirmation of the transaction. However, after receiving the funds, Mr. Varun Singh Rathore became unreachable, prompting the victim to approach the plaintiff for redressal. Screenshots of the forged approval letter, letter of intent, both dated 10th December, 2024, and the fraudulent payment receipt have been filed in the plaint.

48. It is submitted that a similar fraudulent incident was reported by another victim, Mr. Rachit Agarwal from Surat, Gujarat. Under identical circumstances, the perpetrators/rogue defendants, led by Mr. Varun Singh Rathore, issued fake, forged, and fabricated documents, including a letter of intent and confirmation and payment letter, both dated 03rd January, 2025. These documents bore plaintiff's trademark and falsely stated that the victim's franchise application had been accepted and instructed him to complete the registration process for the plaintiff's brand "YOUSTA" by making a payment of INR 1,73,400/- to a bank account under the name 'Reliance Retail Limited'. In this case, the perpetrators/rogue defendants used the email address franchise@reliance-yousta.in to communicate with the victim and induce the payment.

49. It is submitted that as the plaintiff continued its investigations into the fraudulent schemes, another victim reached out on 1^{4th} January, 2025, regarding an email received from info@relianceyousta.in about the franchise process for "YOUSTA". The six-page email outlined fake franchise acquisition procedures, including process steps, associated costs, required documentation, and other specifications. It was fraudulently sent under the name of Mr. Pankaj Dubey, a legitimate employee of the plaintiff, who has never issued such an email to the victim. This incident highlights how the perpetrators/rogue defendants have been impersonating the plaintiff's employees to further their fraudulent scheme. The complete email dated 14th January, 2025, as forwarded by the victim, has also been submitted along with this plaint.

50. It is submitted that on 30th January, 2025, the plaintiff received an alarming complaint from its authorized franchise partner, Franchise India. The complaint revealed that a fraudulent alternative Yousta Business Model brochure was being circulated. This brochure misrepresented the franchise model, including investment requirements, rental property guidelines, and overall business modalities, thereby misleading potential investors. Furthermore, the plaintiff has received multiple complaints from customers and well-wishers about fraudulent franchise offers being promoted on various online platforms.

51. It is submitted that the perpetrators have also established fake social media profiles on Facebook, LinkedIn, YouTube, and other platforms, as well as WhatsApp accounts and fake email domains, all of which fraudulently use the plaintiff's trademarks, branding, corporate identity, and employee details to gain the trust of unsuspecting individuals.

52. It is submitted that from an analysis of the websites and the Facebook accounts operated and managed by the rogue defendants, it is apparent that these rogue defendants have dishonestly and unauthorizedly used the plaintiff's YOUSTA family of marks on their respective websites and/or Facebook account to imply and suggest an association with the plaintiff in order to mislead the members of the public into believing that the plaintiff is providing franchises of the brand 'YOUSTA' through them and, thereby, defraud such unsuspecting members of the public for the purpose of deriving wrongful gains.

53. It is submitted that it is also apprehended by the plaintiff that the defendant nos. 1 and 18 are also interlinked with each other and share a common motive to defraud the general members of the society. This is further evident as the Whatsapp Account of one of the infringing unknown entities, under defendant no.18, has shown fake and fraudulent association with more than one brand belonging to the plaintiff. While the plaintiff found it to be a fraudulent entity promoting a YOUSTA franchise through its Whatsapp Account, at a later stage this same entity's Whatsapp page was fraudulently promoting the plaintiff's famous "CAMPA COLA" franchise. Pertinently, the plaintiff had recently filed the case CS(COMM) 1185 of 2024, Reliance Retail Limited v. Rilbusiness.in & Ors., against fake and fraudulent entities that were illegally offering and promoting franchises/distributorship of its “CAMPA COLA” brand. This Court had granted an ex-parte ad-interim injunction restraining such entities from promoting these fake franchises and further directed the proforma defendants impleaded therein to assist the plaintiff with compliance of the order. The plaintiff therefore apprehends that the defendant nos. 1 and 18 as well as the defendants in the plaintiff’s “CAMPA COLA” suit are all interconnected and are conducting the same infringing/fraudulent/unlawful/deceitful activities in relation to different brands of the plaintiff.

54. It is submitted that through the fraudulent pages that bear the plaintiff’s registered marks, images of the plaintiff’s store of the brand ‘YOUSTA’ and the email addresses and corporate addresses actually used by the plaintiff, the rogue defendants induce the members of the public to provide information through the false/fake application forms for the franchise of the ‘YOUSTA’ upon the payment of monies in the garb of investments.

55. It is submitted that the Rogue Defendants have not been authorised to use the plaintiff’s registered marks, including, inter alia, “RELIANCE”, “YOUSTA” and “”. Thus, any such use by the rogue defendants amounts to infringement of the exclusive rights owned by the plaintiff within the purview of the provisions of the Trademarks Act, 1999.

56. It is submitted that rogue defendants, by virtue of using identical trademarks / logos, including, inter alia, “RELIANCE”, “RELIANCE

RETAIL”, “”, “YOUSTA”, “” and the variants thereof have passed off and infringed the plaintiff's rights in terms of Section 29 of the Trademarks Act 1999.

57. It is submitted that the rogue defendants' use of the said trademarks / logos is bound to cause confusion in the minds of a person with average intelligence and imperfect recollection. It is submitted that an average consumer is bound to be misled into believing that the rogue defendants are in some manner associated / connected / affiliated with the plaintiff herein.

58. In the above circumstances, the plaintiff has demonstrated a prima facie case for grant of injunction and, in case, no ex-parte ad-interim injunction is granted, the plaintiff will suffer an irreparable loss. Further, balance of convenience also lies in favour of the plaintiff, and against the defendants.

59. Accordingly, till the next date of hearing, the following directions are passed:

I. Defendant nos. 1 and 18 by themselves, their owners, proprietors, partners, servants, employees, directors and all others in capacity of principal or agent acting for and on behalf of, or anyone claiming through, by or under it, are restrained from using the plaintiff's registered trademarks
