CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJEEV NARULA

ORDER
22.02.2024

%

1. Pre-litigation mediation between the parties was a non-starter as according to the Plaintiff, the Defendant had not deposited their share of the fee. Mr. Shravan Bansal, counsel for Defendant, states that perhaps because of non-receipt of notice to that effect, the Defendant could not participate in the mediation proceedings. Nonetheless, Mr. Bansal submits that he has instructions to say that the Defendant is willing to explore mediation.
2. Accordingly, at the first instance, the parties are referred to the Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre, where they shall appear on 29th February, 2024.
3. Mr. Rajshekhar Rao, Senior Counsel for Plaintiff, without making any arguments, states that he has noticed certain errors and inadvertent omissions of necessary facts in the plaint, which the Plaintiff would like to correct by filing an amended plaint. Keeping the spirit of mediation in mind, as requested by Mr. Rao, Plaintiff is permitted to file the amended plaint, two weeks after the conclusion of mediation proceedings, if circumstances so warrant. As and when the amended plaint is filed, a copy thereof shall be supplied to the counsel for Defendant, who appears on advance notice.

4. List before the Court on 1st April, 2024.
