The counsels for the parties states that they had earlier filed the physical copies of all their respective documents. However when the physical files of this suit were called today in the Court for conducting the admission/denial, the physical copies of those documents were not found on record. The registry has only sent two parts of the entire file comprising of 16 parts. The remaining 14 parts were not traceable in the registry.

The registry is directed to file a report in respect thereof.

List the matter for the report of the registry and admission/denial on 16.08.2024.
