ORDER

% 12.08.2026

Matter is taken up through physical hearing as well as video conferencing.

Review Pet. 555/2025 (u/s. 114 & 151 CPC r/w Chapter XXV, Rule 1 of Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules, 2018 filed by defendants)

In reply to the present Review petition, in paragraph 8, the plaintiff has admitted that the documents of the defendant were under objections till 28.10.2024 and the Replication has been filed on 14.12.2024. Even if this Court go by this submission of the plaintiff, the Replication should have been filed at the most by 13.12.2024 when calculating 45 days period. Thus, the Replication is found to be filed beyond 45 days. It is settled law that the Court cannot condone the delay even for a single day beyond 45 days under any circumstance (reference is had to Chapter VII Rule 5 Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules, 2018 and the celebrated judgment Ram Sarup Lugani vs. Nirmal Lugani 2020 SCC Online, Delhi 1353). This Court has no discretionary power in this regard. Thus, I find an error in the Order dated 08.09.2025 vide which the Replication of the plaintiff had been taken on record. Accordingly, the order dated 08.09.2025 is reviewed and modified to the extent that Replication of the plaintiff is not taken on record being time barred. The Review petition is accordingly allowed and disposed off.

Joint Document Schedule be filed by the plaintiff after obtaining comments and signatures from Ld. counsels for defendants. Parties are directed to file signed pleadings and hard copy of documents on record with the Registry.

Be fixed for further proceedings on 08.10.2026.
