4. In view of the sentence being of one year and six months RI only, the appeal stands admitted and there is no likelihood of appeal being heard in near future, and since he was admitted to bail at the time of awarding the sentence, I am inclined to suspend the present sentence during the pendency of this appeal subject to appellant executing personal bond of Rs. 25,000/- with one surety to the satisfaction of the concerned court within one month from today.
5. The appellant/applicant shall appear before this court as and when the appeal is listed for hearing; he will not indulge in any other offence in the meantime, which itself will be a ground for the State to move an application for cancellation of the suspension of the sentence granted.
6. The application is disposed of.
