27.03.2026

CRL.M.A. 9370/2026 (exemption)

1. Allowed, subject to all just exceptions.
2. Application stands disposed of.

CRL.M.C. 2298/2026

3. By way of present petition, the petitioners seek quashing of FIR bearing no. 69/2010, registered at Police Station Mansarovar Park, Delhi for the commission of offence punishable under Sections 323/452/506/34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereafter 'IPC').
4. The petitioners and respondent no. 2 are present before this Court and have been identified by their counsels and concerned Investigating Officer

(IO) from Police Station Mansarovar Park, Delhi.

5. Briefly stated, facts of the present case are that on 04.07.2009, the petitioners and respondent No. 2 had an altercation, on playing a loud music. Subsequently, a PCR van was called to the spot. Upon arrival, the police officials had taken the parties to GTB Hospital for medical examination, and based on the aforesaid event, the present FIR was registered in the year 2010, against the petitioners under the relevant sections.

6. It is stated that both the parties had amicably settled the present matter vide Settlement Agreement dated 18.03.2016, entered between them before Delhi Mediation Centre. However, the earlier petition, filed for quashing of the FIR in question, was dismissed for non-prosecution on 30.11.2018. Accordingly, the present petition has been filed seeking the aforesaid relief.

7. On a query made by this Court, respondent no.2 who has been identified by the concerned IO, has categorically stated that she has entered into compromise out of her own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. It is also stated by respondent no. 2 that the entire dispute has been amicably settled between the parties. Respondent no. 2 further states that she has no objection if the present FIR is quashed.

8. In view of the above fact that the parties have amicably resolved their differences out of their own free will, without any coercion, no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

9. Accordingly, FIR bearing No. 69/2010, registered at Police Station Mansarovar Park, Delhi for the commission of offence punishable under Sections 323/452/506/34 of IPC and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

10. In view of the above, the present petition stands disposed of.

11. The order be uploaded on the website forthwith.
