CM APPL. 16721/2024 -Ex.

1. Exemption allowed, subject to all just exceptions.
2. The application stands disposed of.

W.P.(C) 4102/2024

3. The present writ petition under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India seeks to assail the order dated 13.10.2023 passed by the learned Central Administrative Tribunal in O. A. No. 1033/2019. Vide the impugned order, the learned Tribunal has rejected the petitioner's original application wherein he had challenged the decision of the respondent rejecting his candidature on the ground that he had committed 7.82% mistakes in the typing test which was the part of selection process.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the learned Tribunal has without examining the petitioner's plea that the respondent had wrongly calculated the number of mistakes, has proceeded to reject the petitioner's original application only on the premise that the petitioner having voluntarily participated in the selection process could not now be permitted to assail the same.

5. Issue notice. Mr. Syed Abdul Haseeb, Advocate, accepts notice on behalf of the respondent and prays for and is granted six weeks' time to file counter affidavit. Rejoinder thereto, if any, be filed within four weeks thereafter.

6. List on 5th September 2024.
