1. The learned counsels for the petitioner(s) shall, amongst themselves, decide who will lead the matter for us and, thereafter, file common written submissions, annexing therewith a convenience compilation of all the documents and the Judgments that they collectively seek to rely upon. For this purpose, W.P.(C) 3642/2017 is made the lead matter wherein the written submissions shall be filed. Such common written submissions shall be filed by the petitioners within a period of four weeks from today.
2. The respondents shall also file their common written submissions dealing with all the matters within a period of three weeks of receipt of the written submissions from the petitioners.
3. List these petitions on 12th February, 2026, at 3:30 P.M..
