CS(OS) 221/2021& I.A. 5510/2021 (under Order
'ex-parte injunction')

As per office note, amended plaint filed by the plaintiff is not on record. So, the plaintiff is directed to do the needful in this regard as per law.

Further, Written Statement to the amended plaint filed by defendant no.1 is lying under objections. At this stage, it is stated by learned counsel for the defendant no.1 that the only objection raised by the registry is that there is a delay of about 20 days in filing Written Statement to the amended plaint by the defendant no.1 and that the same may be condoned on the oral request. Learned counsel for the plaintiff submits that he has no objection, if delay is condoned. At the oral request of learned counsel for the defendant no.1, the delay in filing Written Statement to the Amended plaint by defendant no.1 is condoned. The defendant no.1 is directed to take requisite steps to bring the same on record as per law.

As per record, separate Written Statement has been filed by defendant no.2. However, at this stage, it is stated by learned counsel for the defendant no.2 that he does not wish to file Written Statement to the amended plaint and adopts the Written Statement filed by defendant no.1. Ordered accordingly.

The Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents filed by plaintiff is not in the prescribed format and also not proper as per law. So, the plaintiff is directed to file fresh/proper Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents strictly in the prescribed format as per Chapter VII of Delhi High Court (Original) Rules as per law within three weeks with copy to the opposite side.

Thereafter, the plaintiff is directed to share draft of Joint Schedule of the documents with learned counsels for the defendants within two weeks. Learned respective counsel for defendant no1 and defendant no.2 are directed to provide their inputs, if any, to the draft of Joint Schedule of the documents to learned counsel for the plaintiff within one week thereafter. The plaintiff is directed to file soft copy as well as physical copy of Joint Schedule of the documents within two weeks thereafter with copy to the opposite side.

Parties are also directed to file hard copy of the documents of which e-copy already filed on record, if not filed earlier, before the next date of hearing.

Re-notify the matter for marking of exhibits to the documents on 29.01.2025. The parties are also directed to produce original documents on the next date of hearing for the purpose of Admission/Denial of the documents.
