ORDER

% 29.01.2025

CS(OS) 221/2021& I.A. 5510/2021 (under Order
'ex-parte injunction')

1. As per office note, amended plaint filed by the plaintiff is lying under objections. Further, Written Statement to the amended plaint filed by defendant no.1 is also lying objections. So, both plaintiff and defendant no.1 are directed to take requisite steps as per law to bring amended plaint and Written Statement to the amended plaint on record before the next date of hearing.

2. Learned counsel for the defendant no.2 already stated that he does not wish to file Written Statement to the amended plaint and adopts the Written Statement filed by defendant no.1.

3. Further, revised Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents filed by the plaintiff is on record. However, again the same is not in the prescribed format. Even on the last date of hearing, Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents filed by the plaintiff was not found in the prescribed format and thereafter, opportunity was granted to the plaintiff to file fresh/proper Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents as per law. Despite the same, Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents is filed by plaintiff again without following the requisite format. So the plaintiff has failed to file the proper Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents despite opportunity. So, cost of Rs.2000/- is imposed upon the plaintiff to be deposited with Delhi High Court Legal Services Committee by the plaintiff and now, last and final opportunity is granted to the plaintiff to file proper Affidavit of Admission/Denial of the documents within two weeks with copy to the opposite side.

4. It is stated by learned counsel for the plaintiff that he could not file the Joint Schedule of the documents as he is blessed with child recently.

5. The plaintiff is directed to share draft of Joint Schedule of the documents with learned counsels for the defendants within two weeks. Learned respective counsels for defendant no1 and defendant no.2 are directed to provide either their inputs to the draft of Joint Schedule of the documents or to supply the signed copy of Joint Schedule of the documents to the learned counsel for the plaintiff within one week thereafter. The plaintiff is directed to file soft copy as well as physical copy of Joint Schedule of the documents within one week thereafter with copy to the opposite side.

6. As per record, hard copy of the documents filed by defendant no.1 are already on record. It is stated by learned counsel for the defendant no.1 that defendant no.1 is present today with Original documents.

7. The defendant no.2 has not filed any document in the present matter.

8. In the interest of justice, the last and final opportunity is granted to the plaintiff to file hard copy of the documents of which e-copy already filed on record, within three weeks.

9. In view of above and since the date before the Hon'ble Court is short, the matter may be placed before the Hon'ble Court on date fixed i.e. 06.02.2025, for further directions.
