I.A. 1022/2023 (Order XXXIX Rule 2A of the CPC)

1. Mr. Hrishikesh Baruah, learned Counsel for the plaintiff/applicant has drawn my attention to the order dated 7th March 2019 passed by this Court in IA 3307/2019, particularly to para 12 thereof, which reads thus:

“12. Accordingly, till the next date of hearing, Defendant No.1 and its office bearers are restrained from using the word 'INDIA' or 'INDIAN' as part of the name of their federation. Defendant No.1 is further restrained from representing in any manner whatsoever that it is a recognized National Sport Federation either by IOA, Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports or by the AIBA. The participants in the boxing tournaments, which are being conducted by Defendant no. 1 in Jabalpur, shall be clearly informed by the Defendant No.1 that it not the recognized National Sports Federation for the Sport of Boxing in India and Defendant no.1 shall also communicate the present order to all the participants and Boxing Associations across the country. Compliance shall be reported within one month.”

2. Mr. Baruah submits that even after passing of the aforesaid order Defendant 1 continues to call itself “Indian Amateur Boxing Federation” and to represent itself as entitled to hold Boxing competitions for Indian boxers. He has, in this context, drawn my attention to a communication dated 14th December 2022, from Indian Amateur Boxing Federation to the Presidents/Secretaries, State/UT/Board Boxing Association, annexed as Document 4 to this application.

3. In the circumstances, Ms. Anupama Sharma, learned Counsel for the defendants submits that she would have to take instructions.

4. As such, issue notice on this application to Defendants 2 and 3, returnable on 13th February 2023.

5. Reply, if any, be filed within two weeks, with advance copy to learned Counsel for the plaintiff who may file rejoinder thereto, before the next date of hearing.

6. Mr. Rakesh Thakran shall remain personally present in Court on the next date of hearing

I.A. 16716/2022 (early hearing of Review Petition)

7. Renotify for hearing on 13th February 2023.
