1. The present petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India has been filed by the Petitioner seeking a direction for production of the child of the Petitioner herein.
2. The child was traced and was found only with the paternal grandfather who has reportedly gone out during the school holidays of the child. This Court has interacted with the child, the Petitioner herein, her husband- Akash Kumar, Petitioner's father and her father-in-law-Jewan Kumar.

3. The facts of the case reveal that the Petitioner and her husband- Akash Kumar had a love marriage and there is a child out of the said wedlock. It is stated that the Petitioner and her husband were living at House No.1424, Gali No.13, Govindpuri, Delhi.

4. The parties have now come to an understanding that the Petitioner, her husband and the child will live together at House No.1424, Gali No.13, Govindpuri, Delhi. It is also stated that the Petitioner for some time will leave her job and take care of the child. The child is now 7 years of age.

5. It is stated that the paternal grandfather of the child, i.e., father-in-law of the Petitioner herein, has been helping the family in taking care of the child as well. The parents of the Petitioner and the Petitioner's husband have agreed to render full cooperation to the couple and the child for the proper upbringing of the child.

6. The habeas corpus petition has therefore become infructuous and is disposed of as such along with pending application(s), if any.

7. List on 01.08.2025 for further directions, if necessary.
