ORDER

% 27.02.2024

1. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner, on one pretext or the other, is not being allowed the visitation rights of the children.
2. The respondent shall ensure that the children appear before the Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre (in short, 'Mediation Centre') on 16.03.2024 for the petitioner to have visitation right with the children from 2:00 PM to 6:00 PM. The respondent shall not remain on the same floor where the visitation will be taking place.
3. The next meeting shall take place on 22.03.2024 before the Mediation Centre for visitation from 2:00 PM to 6:00 PM.

4. On both occasions, a Child Counsellor shall also be appointed by the Secretary of the Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre for supervision. The Child Counsellor will also ensure that, if possible, the visitation rights shall also be exercised by the petitioner on 24.03.2024 in the morning, at the time and place to be determined by the Counsellor and as is conducive to the children.
5. The Mediation Centre shall send the report of the Counsellor before this Court regarding the above visitations.
6. List on 3rd April, 2024.
