1. Digitized copy of Trial Court Record has been received.
2. The FIR in question has been registered at the instance of the complainant i.e. father of the victim, who is not present today.
3. Learned Addl. P.P. for the State submits that he may be also called, before taking any final decision in the matter.
4. The Investigating Officer shall contact the complainant and would intimate him about the next date of hearing so that he can also be heard.
5. Complainant would be at liberty to join the proceedings through video-conferencing.
6. Admittedly, respondent No.2, who had, allegedly, been sexually assaulted by the petitioner, got married to the accused on 09.04.2020 and they are also having two children from such marriage. Respondent No.2, who is present in Court, has been duly identified by the Investigating Officer and reiterates that the matter has been amicably settled and she would have no objection if the present FIR is quashed.

7. Copy of MoU, Marriage Certificate, respondent No.2 affidavit giving no objection, are already on record.

8. Learned Addl. P.P. for the State submits that they would also place on record a verification report with respect to the factum of marriage and the birth of children.

9. Let it be filed by next date of hearing.

10. List on 18.04.2026.

11. The proceedings before the learned Trial Court shall remain stayed in the interregnum.
