8. PW-1 is present for evidence. Defendant no. 3 is present and requested for an adjournment as her counsel is not available being not well.
9. Learned counsel for plaintiff opposed the request for adjournment as plaintiff / PW-1 is a senior citizen.
10. Hence, in view of the facts and circumstances, request for adjournment is partly allowed to the extent that witness may be cross-examined on the next date, however, his examination-in-chief be completed today.
11. PW-1 tendered his affidavit along with documents. During his examination-in-chief, defendant again stated that as her counsel is not present and therefore, documents may not be allowed to be tendered because there may be objections to be pointed out by her counsel qua the documents and further requested for adjournment for further tendering of the documents. Thereafter, she had left saying that she is not aware about technicality of the evidence, so she is leaving.

12. PW-1 had already tendered affidavit as well as part documents. However, in the interest of justice, further examination-in-chief of PW-1 is deferred for next date of hearing.

13. Put up for further examination of PW-1 / RPE for 19.12.2024 at 12:00 Noon.
