CM APPL. 40524/2021 -Delay 42 days to bring on record Addl. doc.

1. This is an application filed by the respondent seeking condonation of 42 days' delay in bringing on record additional documents in terms of order dated 27.07.2021.
2. The application is, for the reasons stated therein, allowed and the additional documents filed alongwith the application, are taken on record.
3. The application stands disposed of.

CM(M) 407/2021

4. The present petition seeks to assail the order dated 27.03.2021 passed by the learned Family Court. Vide the impugned order, the learned Family Court has rejected the objections of the petitioner to the execution of the judgment dated 18.03.2006 sought by the respondent/wife.

5. As per the aforesaid decision dated 18.03.2006, the petitioner was directed to return all the articles given by the respondent and her family members at the time of the marriage. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is still willing to return the items tick-marked in the list filed alongwith the application as Annexure-6. Furthermore, the petitioner has already paid a sum of Rs.5 lakhs to the respondent pursuant to the interim order passed by this Court and, therefore, even if the respondent's claims were to be accepted in its entirety as per her own version, the respondent is entitled to claim only a further sum of Rs. 9.59 lakhs from the petitioner. She submits that the value of these goods which the petitioner is willing to return will in all probability be more than Rs.9.59 lakhs, which amount the respondent is claiming has remained unpaid.
6. In the light of the stand taken by the petitioner, while deferring hearing, the respondent is directed to remain present in Court on the next date. The petitioner will bring to Court the goods which she is willing to return to the respondent on the next date so that the respondent can examine these goods and take a considered decision as to whether she would be willing to take back the goods.
7. List on 13.07.2023.
8. Interim orders to continue till the next date.
