

$~16

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

+ CS(OS) 246/2019

MS. SALONEE PURI Plaintiff

Represented by: Ms. Manpreet Kaur, Advocate.

versus

MS. SANJANA ROY CHOUDHURY & ANR. Defendants

Represented by: Mr. R.K. Singh & Mr. Mrigank Shekhar,
Advocates for defendants.

Mr. Gaganpreet Singh, proxy counsel for
Ms. Jaya Tomar, Advocate for SBI.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE MUKTA GUPTA

ORDER

% 30.10.2019

CS(OS) 246/2019 & CC 20/2019, I.A. 6690-6691/2019, I.A. 11417/2019

1. Computation has been handed over as per which there are four FDs in the joint name of the plaintiff and the defendants.
 2. Since the defendant No.2, mother of the plaintiff and defendant No. 1 is aged 84 years and is suffering from Parkinson disease and needs maintenance for herself, it is directed, the monthly interest of the four FDs jointly in the name of the plaintiff and defendant No.1, be given to defendant No. 2 so that her day-to-day needs as well as medical needs are taken care of.
 3. As per the chart of computation handed over by learned counsel for defendant No.1, which is not opposed by learned counsel for the plaintiff, Manager, State Bank of India and Manager, Union Bank will transfer the interest received from FD Nos.30604438537 and 30604438741 at SBI and FD Nos.355703021012609 and 355703021010672 at Union Bank on monthly basis on or before 5th of every month to Account No.159810755431 of defendant No.2 with Indusind Bank, Palm Springs Plaza, Gurgaon.
- CS(OS) 246/2019

Page 1 of 2

4. At request of learned counsel for the plaintiff, who states that the arguing counsel is not available, renotify on 24th January, 2020.

5. Order dasti.

MUKTA GUPTA, J.

OCTOBER 30, 2019
‘AA’