ORDER
18.09.2024

1. The judgment debtor (in short, 'JD') is not personally present in Court today in spite of the direction given vide Order dated 12.08.2024.
2. The learned counsel for the decree holder (in short, 'DH') also points out that the JD has received the amount on maturity of the Life Insurance Policy, which was taken note of by this Court in its Order dated 29.08.2024. He submits that the JD has misappropriated the proceeds so received.
3. The learned counsel appearing for the JD submits that the proceeds received from the Life Insurance Policy were used for the repayment of a loan taken from the LIC itself, and certain amount was assigned to the daughter of the JD.

4. Keeping in view the above, the JD shall file an affidavit before this Court clearly stating how he dealt with the proceeds received by him on the maturity of the abovementioned LIC policy. In the affidavit, the JD shall also disclose his current address and email ID, and also produce the documents showing the transfer of money that he claims to have made. Such affidavit be filed within a period of one week from today.

5. The JD shall also remain personally present in Court on the next date of hearing. In case the JD is not personally present in Court on the next date of hearing, further coercive action to seek his presence shall be taken.

6. List on 1st October, 2024.
