“a) Take on record this application and issue appropriate directions to the Learned Tribunal to forthwith pronounce the award in I.D. No. 10/2003 within a time-bound manner;

b) Direct the Registry of this Hon’ble Court to list the present disposed of petition for further directions in light of the continued delay;

c) Pass such other and further orders as may be deemed just and appropriate in the facts and circumstances of the case.”

3. Vide order dated 28.04.2025, the captioned petition was disposed of by learned Single Judge of this Court, by observing as under:-

“7. Concededly, the final arguments were addressed before the Tribunal on 26.04.2024 and since then, the Award is awaited. On the last date of hearing, Ms. Laavanya Kaushik, learned counsel for Union of India was directed to take instructions. Today, she submits that out of the two

8. Be that as it may, the present case depicts a sorry state of affairs. The Reference has remained pending before the Tribunal for about 22 years, despite directions for earlier disposal by the Supreme Court way back in the year 2012.

9. In view of the above, the present petition is disposed of alongwith the pending application with a direction that Tribunal shall dispose of the Reference within a period of four weeks from today.

10. Let a copy of this order be communicated to the concerned Tribunal through special messenger.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner further points out that vide order dated 20.08.2025, the learned Presiding Officer, CBI- Labour Court-II, has now listed the matter for clarification on 28.08.2025, i.e., today.

5. Issue notice.

6. Learned counsel for the respondent accepts notice.

7. Let an affidavit be placed on record with respect to proceedings conducted by learned Presiding Officer, post the order dated 28.04.2025.

8. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of Central Government Industrial Tribunal submits that the Secretary of CGIT be impleaded as respondent no.1.

9. Let an amended memo of parties be filed before the next date of hearing. Let the response be filed by the Secretary of CGIT as respondent no.1.

10. List on 17.09.2025.

11. Order be communicated to the Presiding Officer, for necessary information and compliance.
