1. This is an application seeking interim suspension of sentence.
2. The status report has been filed, which indicates that the address of the appellant's son has not been verified. It is stated that he has left the address as provided and is now working somewhere in Panchkula, Haryana.
3. The learned counsel appearing for the appellant also states that her son is living in a motor garage and the appellant would have to reside somewhere else. He requests for an adjournment to provide the address where the appellant would reside, if released on the account of interim suspension of the sentence awarded to her.
4. At his request, list on 21.01.2020.
