CRL.M.(BAIL) 506/2023 (Interim Bail)

The present application under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Cr.P.C.), 1973, has been instituted on behalf of Neeraj, the appellant herein, seeking interim bail, on the ground that the latter wants to transfer his school-going daughters to another unspecified school.

The appellant's appeal has already been heard by this Court, and other appeals of his co-accused(s) are also being heard. The appellant has been convicted in a case of honor killing; and the prime accused in the subject case has been absconding after the pronouncement of judgment of his conviction.

It is also observed that the name and particulars of the school to which the appellant now seeks to transfer his daughters to, is conspicuous by his absence. It is also pertinent to observe that no transfer certificate from the school currently being attended by the appellant's daughters, has been placed on record.

In this view of the matter, we are of the considered view that the present application is devoid of any merit.

The application is dismissed and disposed of accordingly.

Copy of the order be uploaded on the website of this Court.
