lumpsum fees of Rs.1,10,000/- to be borne in the ratio of 1/6th by each of the parties to this suit. In case the number of hearings before the Local Commissioner exceed fourteen in number then further appropriate orders will be passed for the fees of the Local Commissioner. Parties will also ensure that chamber space or any other space is made available within the High Court premises for recording of evidence so that the Court file does not go outside the High Court premises. It is also agreed that none of the parties will take unnecessary adjournments during the process of recording of evidence before the Local Commissioner.
