ORDER
% 01.02.2022

Matter has been taken up through video conferencing, in terms of directions vide Circular No.1/RG/DHC/2022 dated 12.01.2022

I.A. No.7207/2020 under Order 6 Rule 17 CPC for amendment of plaint

The present application has been filed by plaintiff for amendment seeking fresh relief of declaration.

Clause (2), in Rule 3 of Chapter II of the Delhi High Courts (Original Side) Rules, 2018, empowers the Registrar to adjudicate on an “application to amend the plaint, petitioner, written statement, the application or subsequent proceedings where the amendment sought is formal”.

The amendment sought by the plaintiff is substantial in nature and not formal, hence, it is beyond the mandate of this Court and same is required to be placed before the Hon'ble Court.

However, due to restrictive functioning of the Courts matter cannot be placed before the Hon'ble Court. Learned counsel for the plaintiff is at liberty to move the appropriate application for getting the matter listed before the Hon'ble Court.

Put up for further proceedings on 03.03.2022.
