Replication, if any, be filed as per law with advance copy to the opposite parties.

Learned counsels for defendants nos. 1 and 4 have stated that they have received the legible copies of plaint and documents on 03.10.2022 by way of e-mail. They are directed to file written statement within the prescribed limitation period with advance copy to the opposite parties.

Learned counsel for defendant no.3 has stated that he has not received legible copies of plaint and documents till date. On the other hand, learned counsel for the plaintiff has strongly contested that contact number provided on the last date by learned counsel for defendant no.3 is not proper and e-mail ID of the counsel was not provided to learned counsel for the plaintiff due to which copy could not be supplied to him. Learned counsel for defendant no.3 has provided e-mail ID today to learned counsel for the plaintiff. Copy of the plaint and documents be provided to learned counsel for defendant no.3 by way of e-mail today itself. Written statement be filed within the prescribed limitation period with advance copy to the opposite parties.

IA No. 11530/2022 (application filed by the plaintiffs u/O XXXIX Rules 1 and 2 CPC for grant of ad-interim ex-parte injunction)

Reply not filed by defendants.

Reply, if any, be filed within one week by defendants.

Matter is already coming up before the Hon'ble Court on 2nd November, 2022, for further directions.
