CM APPL. 80072/2025 in LPA 389/2024

1. The instant applications have been moved by the Applicant-Appellant with an assertion that when they approached the Implementation Officer for compliance the order dated 18.11.2025, passed by this Court he informed that there was no provision for deposition of the amount and thus refused to accept the amount.

2. Having heard learned counsel for the parties, this Court deems it appropriate to modify the stipulation made in Para No. 5 of the said order dated 18.11.2025 in the manner that instead of depositing the amount with the Implementation Officer, the Appellant shall directly deposit the amount into the bank accounts of the Respondent-workman.

3. Similarly, instead of furnishing one surety to the satisfaction of Implementation Officer as per Para No. 6 of order dated 18.11.2025, the Respondent-workmen shall furnish an undertaking before the Registrar General of this Court. The order dated 18.11.2025, stands modified accordingly.

4. It shall be required of Mr. Rajiv Agarwal, learned counsel for the Respondent-workmen, to supply the bank account details, including IFSC code of the Respondent-workmen, to the learned counsel for the Appellant.

5. The Respondent-workmen are directed to furnish undertaking within seven days, whereafter, it shall be required of the Appellant to transmit the amount in question by 10.01.2026.
