Matter is taken up through physical hearing as well as video conferencing.

The case is at the stage of admission/denial and marking of exhibits, but learned counsel for the plaintiff has stated that defendant no.1 has not filed additional affidavit of admission/denial to the additional documents of the plaintiff.

Learned counsel for defendant no.1 has stated that the documents pertaining to the additional affidavit of admission/denial were lost in transit as defendant no.1 is residing in USA.

Heard. One opportunity is granted to defendant no.1 for filing additional affidavit of admission/denial in respect of additional documents of the plaintiff, within two weeks with advance copy to the opposite parties.

As per order dated 31.05.2022, learned counsel for defendant no.1 had undertaken to file appropriate application for proper representation of defendant no.2 who is father of both the parties and stated to be residing in Old Age Home in Greater Noida, however, till date learned counsel for defendant no.1 has not apprised the court regarding the representation of defendant no.2. Last opportunity is granted to defendant no.1 for taking steps in this regard also.

Hard copies of the documents and original signed pleadings of the plaintiff have come on record.

Hard copies of the documents of defendant no.1 is also on record, but original signed pleadings not filed by defendant no.1. Let the same be filed atleast one week before the next date of hearing.

Joint Document Schedule be filed by the plaintiff within four weeks after filing of the additional affidavit of admission/denial by defendant no.1.

Put up for admission/denial and marking of exhibits on 21st March, 2023.
