1. Learned counsel for the plaintiff submits that the plaintiff had filed the affidavit of admission/ denial qua the documents of defendant No. 1 to 3 on 5th February, 2020 and the same has not been retrieved even under objection.
2. She states that it appears that the affidavit of admission/denial has been misplaced by the Registry and thus the plaintiff would file a fresh affidavit of admission/ denial qua the documents of defendant No.1 to 3 within one week.
3. List before the learned Joint Registrar on 13th March, 2020 for admission/ denial of documents.

4. In the meantime parties pray that the parties be also permitted to explore the possibility of a negotiated settlement as the parties are related and are seeking partition of the suit properties left behind by late Ayodhya Nath Anand, the predecessor in interest of all the parties.
5. Parties are directed to appear before the Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre on 2nd March, 2020 at 4.00 PM in the first and thereafter as and when directed by the learned mediator.
6. Awaiting the conclusion of admission/denial of documents and report of the learned mediator, list before Court on 21st April, 2020.
