Matter is taken up through physical hearing as well as video conferencing.

Regular steno is on leave and data entry operator has been provided as substitute.

CS(COMM) 521/2022

As per file noting, written statement along with affidavit of admission/denial, vakalatnama and documents has been e-filed by the defendant. Counsel for plaintiff has stated that there is delay in filing written statement but it is not supported with any application for condonation of delay and complete set of written statement and documents has not been supplied to the plaintiff.

Heard. Defendant is directed to supply copy of the written statement and documents to the counsel for plaintiff by way of email within two days. Last opportunity is granted to defendant for filing application for condonation of delay within two weeks, which shall be considered on merits.

I.A. 6061/2023 (application under Order 8 Rule 10 CPC r/w Section 151 CPC to pronounce the judgement in favour of plaintiff and against defendant and draw up the decree in accordance therewith as the defendant has failed to present the written statement within the prescribed time)

Ld. counsel for defendant seeks some more time to file reply. Reply be filed within four weeks with advance copy to the opposite party. Rejoinder may be filed thereafter before the next date of hearing.

Put up for further hearing on 13.07.2023.
