Proceedings are being conducted through hybrid mode.

I.A. No. 30322/2024 (by plaintiff u/O V Rule 10 r/w Sec. 151 CPC for substituted service of defendants)

1. The matter has been taken up today on filing of the captioned IA.
2. It is submitted that the matter is coming up for hearing before the undersigned on 10.07.2024.
3. Ld. Counsel for plaintiff has submitted that summons could not be served upon defendants by ordinary mode as they are deliberately avoiding service of summons. He has further submitted that the address of defendants as mentioned in memo of parties is their last known address and apart from the same, the plaintiff has no other address of the defendants. He has further submitted that the defendants could not be served through ordinary mode, therefore, they may be served through publication in newspaper.

4. Heard. Record perused. It appears that summons could not be served upon the defendants through ordinary mode. For the reasons stated in the application and in view of above submissions, let defendants be served with summons of the suit through substituted service i.e. by way of publication in newspaper 'The Statesman' (English edition) and 'Navbharat Times' (Hindi edition) having circulation in Gurugram (Haryana) as well as in Noida (U.P.) on filing of PF and subject to deposit of necessary publication charges by petitioner, as per rules, returnable on date already fixed i.e. 10.07.2024.
5. The captioned IA stands disposed off accordingly.
